RETAIL EMPLOYEES CREDIT UNION NAMES NEW VICE PRESIDENT

January 18, 2008 (Atlanta, GA) Retail Employees Credit Union announces the promotion of Adam Marlowe to the position of Vice President. In his new role Marlowe will be responsible for overseeing a wide range of credit union activities including member service, lending, and operations.

Marlowe, who previously served as RECU's Operations / IT Manager, has over 11 years experience in all areas of the credit union system, including business development, operations, lending, and collections. Much of this time was served in a managerial capacity.

"Adam's combination of industry experience and management skill will enable RECU to reach new heights in service, lending, and operations." Said RECU President Jeanne Kucey, "He has a strong commitment to the credit union movement and is well respected by his peers."

"I am honored and enthusiastic about serving as RECU's Vice President" said Marlowe. "As Vice President, I plan to build on our recent accomplishments and continue the important efforts to grow our credit union in loans and membership".

Marlowe holds a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in institution technology, both from American InterContinental University of Atlanta, Georgia.
